report concerning the Orion Radio és Villamossági Vallalat (Orion Radio Factory), Budapest X. The report gives some information on the military nature of the factory's production during the first half of 1955 and states that 600 persons were employed. The report also tells where cases and tubes for radio and television sets were procured, and it includes a sketch showing the relative location of the various sections of the factory. The sketch is keyed to an explanatory legend.

H U N G A R YECONOMIC / MILITARYRadio-Factory "ORION"

1. The "ORION" radio-factory is in BUDAPEST, ^{X,} ~~on~~ at 29 Jaszberenyi Street, in buildings formerly used by a chocolate factory. For a lay-out of the works please see Appendix "A".
2. During the first half of 1956, one-third of ORION's production was for the military services; the present proportion is not known. The total labour-force is approximately 600 people, directed by an Army colonel, emphasising the ultimately military nature of the factory. The departments producing military equipment were rigidly separated from the others and access was permitted only to selected officials and workers.
3. Cases for radios and television sets are supplied by "RADIOSELEKCIÓGYÁR", valves by "EGYESÜLT IZZO" and resistances by "REMIX".
